

7th Grade Social Studies | Texas History Scope & Sequence

Course Overview: This course is designed to build students' skills in primary and secondary source reading and advanced writing skills while continuing to develop map, graph and analytic skills from 6th Grade. It also lays the foundation for advanced reading and historical thinking skills that will be required from 8th grade on. The units in the course move chronologically starting with Native Americans in Texas (pre-1519) through the present.
